

Heuchera 'Plum Pudding'

Plum Pudding Coral Bells

DESCRIPTION

Plum Pudding stands out with stunning foliage of deep plum-purple leaves with faint silver marbling between even darker veins.

Dainty white flowers reach 26" in early summer but are not as showy as the foliage.

Plant Plum Pudding in the shady garden for best coloration.

Exceptional growth habit for woodland, rock and in massed planting.

QUICK FACTS

Plant Height: 12-24"

Plant Spread: 12-18"

Hardiness Zone: 3-8

Flower Color: Small white

Sun/Light Exposure: Full sun to part shade

Bloom Time: July and August

Medford Nursery

560-A Eayrestown-Red Lion Road, Medford, NJ 08055

Phone: 609-267-8100 Toll Free: 800-443-3314

www.medfordnursery.com

